- She is a very engaging speaker, knowledgeable and makes learning relevant, practical and humorous. Very generous with her sharing and is willing to hear different cases and points of view.
- Engaging! Practical succinct points. Not in-depth enough though! Wish for more time with her! Amazing, opened my eyes to possibilities.
- Good learning opportunity.
- Great learning experience. Good balance of theory vs practices. Was able to apply learning in work.
- Excellent! Easy to digest. She should be more of a resident lecturer.
- Fun games, test, activities that engages the class and yet meaningful in illustrating the points that instructor wants to share with us. She is humorous and very personable, which helps to make the learning participatory.
- Great speaker, great personality and great lecture.
- Very inspiring, engaging and clear. Shares knowledge.
- Very good overall. Again, another module I would like to be expanded on to possibly 3 sessions.
- Perfect 10! Practical tools provided, very applicable to our organisations. Very interactive, lecturer is magnetic!
- Very energetic.
- Session was good.
- Very personable and a great communicator and teacher.
- Multi-model teaching aids utilized. Good delivery of lessons. Excellent local examples given very appropriate.
- Usha is a good instructor. Clear mind on subject. Very interesting.
- Very good session. Both the lecturer and the topic were very stimulating for the participants.
- Very engaging and helpful session. Practical and relevant examples are used to address the issues raised.
- Very practical tips.
- Again a practitioner but was very engaging. Used very real situations/stories to engage students.
- Relevant and practical from her wealth of experience and familiar with local scenes.
- Excellent presentation; accommodation of questions in and out of discussion. Was personable which helped with the interest in the subject. Was definitely a note above the rest.
- Very interesting and relevant especially the second half which covered Volunteer Management. High relevance.
- She gives good practical inputs on the topic for students. She put students at ease.
- Good lecturer. Easily the best!
- Should have more time for this practical topic. She has rich experience in this field.
- Fantastic insights!
